AmeriCorps Alums Day at the White House

I attended AmeriCorps Alums Day on Friday, August 17, at the White House, an event convened by the White House Office of Public Engagement along with the Corporation for National and Community Service. The event featured a daylong briefing, highlighting AmeriCorps Alumni and public service as a pathway to opportunity and career advancement. As a member of the Chicago Chapter of AmeriCorps Alumni,

The event included breakout sessions for AmeriCorps Alums to share their stories with leading officials including Wendy Spencer, chief executive officer, Corporation for National and Community Service; and Mayor John Fetterman of Braddock, PA.

According to the Corporation for National and Community Service, more than 750,000 AmeriCorps alums served 1 billion hours of service in our country since 1993.

This event is also featured on the White House blog at <http://www.whitehouse.gov/blog/2012/08/19/hanging-out-ameri-corps>.

Paul Collins is pleased to announce the publication of Friends of the Supreme Court: Interest Groups and Judicial Decision Making (Oxford University Press).

Here is an excerpt from the acknowledgements:

“The earliest incarnations of my work on amici curiae began at the University of Scranton, where I studied political science as an undergraduate. I entered with an interest in the fact that interest groups use the judiciary, reading Walker and Epstein’s (1993) introductory treatment of the Supreme Court (one of the few undergraduate texts I read). I thank Leonard Champney, Joseph Cimini, Jean Harris, Robert Kocis, William Parente, and Gretchen Van Dyke.”

Class of 2003

Kathryn A. Clarke, mother of Reverend Brian J.T. Clarke (2003).

Kathryn A. "Kay" Clarke, 66, Fall Street, Ashley, died Thursday, August 28, 2008, surrounded by her family at Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center after an illness.

Born in Binghamton, N.Y., a daughter of the late George T. and Inez R. Splann Vail, she graduated from Vestal Central High School in 1960. Mrs. Clarke was a 1963 graduate of Saint Joseph's University, where she worked with Dr. Ronald I. Harris in the Hospital Endocrinology Clinic.

Mrs. Clarke was recognized, along with her colleagues, for professional achievement by the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania for Quality Diabetes Care. She was also recognized by the American Diabetes Association. A devout Catholic, Mrs. Clarke was an active member of the Church of St. Leo the Great, Ashley. For many years, she served as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

Mrs. Clarke was an avid sewer and quilter, having hand-crafted many personal pieces for her family, most notably wedding gowns and accessories for several of her nieces. She and her husband were avid gardeners.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Clarke is survived by four children, James, and his wife, Michelle, Hanover Township; Allison, and her fiancé, Keith Shubilla, both of Wilkes-Barre; George Edward Vail, Endicott, N.Y. and George "Bud" Vail, Pulaski, Tenn.; numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral will be held Monday from the Leo P. Lehman Funeral Home, 689 Hazle Ave. at 10:30 a.m., with a Mass of Christian Burial at 11 a.m. at The Church of Saint Leo the Great/Holy Redeemer, 1000 N. 10th St., Ashley, Pa.

The Mass will be celebrated by her son, Reverend Brian J.T. Clarke, Chaplain, Holy Redeemer High School, Wilkes-Barre. Friends may call today from 2 to 4 and 6 to 9 at Leo P. Lehman Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation, 1332 N. Halstead St., Suite 201, Chicago, IL 60642; The American Diabetes Association, 63 N. Franklin St., Chicago, IL 60610. For more information, please contact info@lehmanfuneralhome.com
